The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1,2,5-8 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gustavus in view of either Faupel or Franco et al. Gustavus shows a support member 25, base 12, rung engaging members 19,21 and support arm at 23, the claimed difference being the adjustable roof engaging leg. Faupel at 15 and Franco at 28 show adjustable legs. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Gustavus to comprise an adjustable leg, as taught by either Faupel or Franco, for supporting his device on a roof surface.

Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gustavus and either Faupel or Franco, as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Garret or Mabie. Garret in fig. 25 shows an adjustable support arm at 252. Mabie shows an adjustable support arm at 38 releasable connected to his base at 66. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Gustavus to comprise an adjustable support arm, as taught by either Garret or Mabie, for adjusting the inclination of his support member.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gustavus and either Faupel or Franco, and either Garret or Mabie, as applied to claim 3 above, and further in view of Bitner. Bitner shows a level indicator at 34. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the support member of Gustavus with a level indicator, as taught by Bitner, to facilitate leveling of his support member.

Claim 9 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
